Lincoln Township – Application for Commission Appointment

Lincoln Township has nine (9) Commissions designed to assist the Township Government with a variety of tasks and services. Four of these: Planning Commission; Zoning Board of Appeals; Construction Board of Appeals; and [Property Tax] Board of Review are defined by State of Michigan Statute, have specified terms of service and responsibilities, and, from time to time, have vacancies.

Planning Commission members serve for three (3) year terms, and may be reappointed. They meet monthly, eleven times annually at a minimum, plus there are usually two (2) days of training offered each year, and there may be Public Hearings and Special Meetings. There may be two (2) alternate members. (5 Members plus Staff)

Zoning Board of Appeals members, meet at the call of the Chair, for Variance and/or Interpretation Hearings typically about four (4) times per year. There is usually one (1) or two (2) days of training offered each year. They also serve for three (3) year terms and may be reappointed. There may be two (2) alternate members. (5 Members plus Staff)

Construction Board of Appeals members, meet at the call of the Supervisor, serve a term of three (3) years, and may be reappointed. Since these members are already required to be licensed professionals in the residential and/or commercial building trades, there is no additional training offered nor required. There may be one (1) alternate member. (3 Members)

Board of Review members serve a two (2) year term and may be reappointed. They attend at least one (1) day of training each February, and meet four (4) times in March, once in July, and once in December (as specified by State Tax Commission Administrative Rules). There may be two (2) alternate members. (3 Members plus the Supervisor as acting Secretary)

While there are some minor exceptions allowed by the State, it is the Policy of Lincoln Township that the members of these four Commissions be Full-time Residents, Property Owners, and Registered Voters of Lincoln Township. If you are interested, and would like to be considered for appointment to one or more of these Commissions, please complete this application and return it to the Township, to the attention of the Supervisor. Thank you.
